Shawnee North Lawn Glamping

FAQ's

What is in my Glamping Tent?

Each glamping tent will include electricity, Wi-Fi, mini-fridge, a Queen-sized bed, a day bed that can act as a couch or can be used as a bed for a third and fourth person. The tent also includes side tables, a lamp, alarm clock, and accompanying items (a lantern, a fan, a heater, area rugs, four chairs, a table, fire pit, and wood).

Is everyone glamping in the same area?

Shawnee North Lawn Glamping offers a communal setting. There may be another family and/or individuals on the neighboring glamping site at the same time. Tents are set-up in close proximity to each other (probably 10 – 12 feet between tents).

Here are several tips to assist in navigating a communal setting:

Leave your phone on vibrate. If you are going to answer it, walk to the edge of the campsite. It may be important to you, but no one else wants their socializing (or sleep) interrupted. Be respectful. Respect people. Respect their culture. Respect their space. Respect their belongings. Introduce yourself. A polite greeting and introduction go a long way to creating a fun environment. Be quiet. Just use your common sense here, just be considerate of people who may be trying to sleep.

What are the check-in and check-out times?

For North Lawn Glamping check-in is 4:00 pm and check-out is 11:00 am.

What is included in my North Lawn Glamping Experience?

Besides overnight accommodations in your north lawn glamping tent, new to the experience this year, is a canoe trip with Shawnee River Trips, a Recreation attendant to help start your campfire and deliver you the necessary items to make s'mores! Breakfast in the River Room Restaurant is also included in your stay.

What should I bring?

Bring clothes appropriate for the activities you plan to partake in, examples can include change of clothes, sneakers (that may get wet) or water shoes, hiking boots, sunglasses, sunscreen, bug spray, and a hat. Optional items include a camera, flashlight, binoculars, swim suit, and swim towel, and an outdoor adventurous attitude. Click here for a complete list of suggested items to bring. You may cancel up to 48 hours of your booking date with no fee charged. Any cancellation 48 hours or less from the arrival date will result in a charge for one night's stay.

What are the glamping risks and rewards?

On any outdoor adventure you may encounter situations that are precarious. You will be in the outdoors. You may encounter spiders, mosquitoes, ticks, and other insects. Please plan to bring bug spray to help ward off any of nature's friends. Our staff will provide items to assist keeping bugs away, but remember, you are in nature. You may face animal encounters. This area of Pennsylvania frequently sees deer, river otters, raccoons, squirrels, fox, coyote, bears, and others of Mother Nature's kingdom. We strongly believe that these animals want nothing to do with you, just as much as you want nothing to do with them. Safety first. Do not go on a hike alone. Take a lantern or flashlight with you in the dark. Please do not try to touch or feed the animals.
